

LCGB

THE LOCOMOTIVE CLUB
OF GREAT BRITAIN

LCGB Club Reunion 2017.

The Annual Club Reunion will take place on Saturday 2nd December 2017 from 10.00 to ca. 17.00.

The guest speaker for the main session is Jack Boskett, an up-and-coming railway photographer whose work currently appears in many of the popular railway journals. It is at a new venue; The London Welsh Centre, 157-163 Grays Inn Road, London WC1X 8UE because the one used in 2016 is no longer available. The day begins in the Lower Hall. The LWC is served by the 45, 46 and 17 bus routes; alight at the Eastman Dental Hospital. It is only about ten minutes walk from Kings Cross station. The Welsh flag flies outside the building above the entrance so it is clearly indicated. All the usual facilities of library, Club sales and annual membership renewal will be available. NB If you have taken out the 3-year Club membership you will not need to renew until next year.

The programme for the day is :-

10.00 Doors Open. Tea and coffee available.

10.30 Chairman's opening address.

10.35 Photographic Competition results, presented by Brian Manktelow, Club Photographic Secretary, assisted by Jeremy Harrison.

12.15 Lunch break. Tea and coffee available.

13.45 Presentation of prizes to winners attending.

14.00 Jack Boskett. 'Railways to Royalty'

15.15-15.35 Break. Tea and coffee available. Jack Boskett, 'Railways to Royalty' continued.

17.00 Reunion ends. Closing remarks. Adjourn to the bar; it serves the excellent Cardiff-brewed beer Brains.

An evening meal in a local restaurant from ca. 18.30 will be arranged if there is sufficient demand.
